
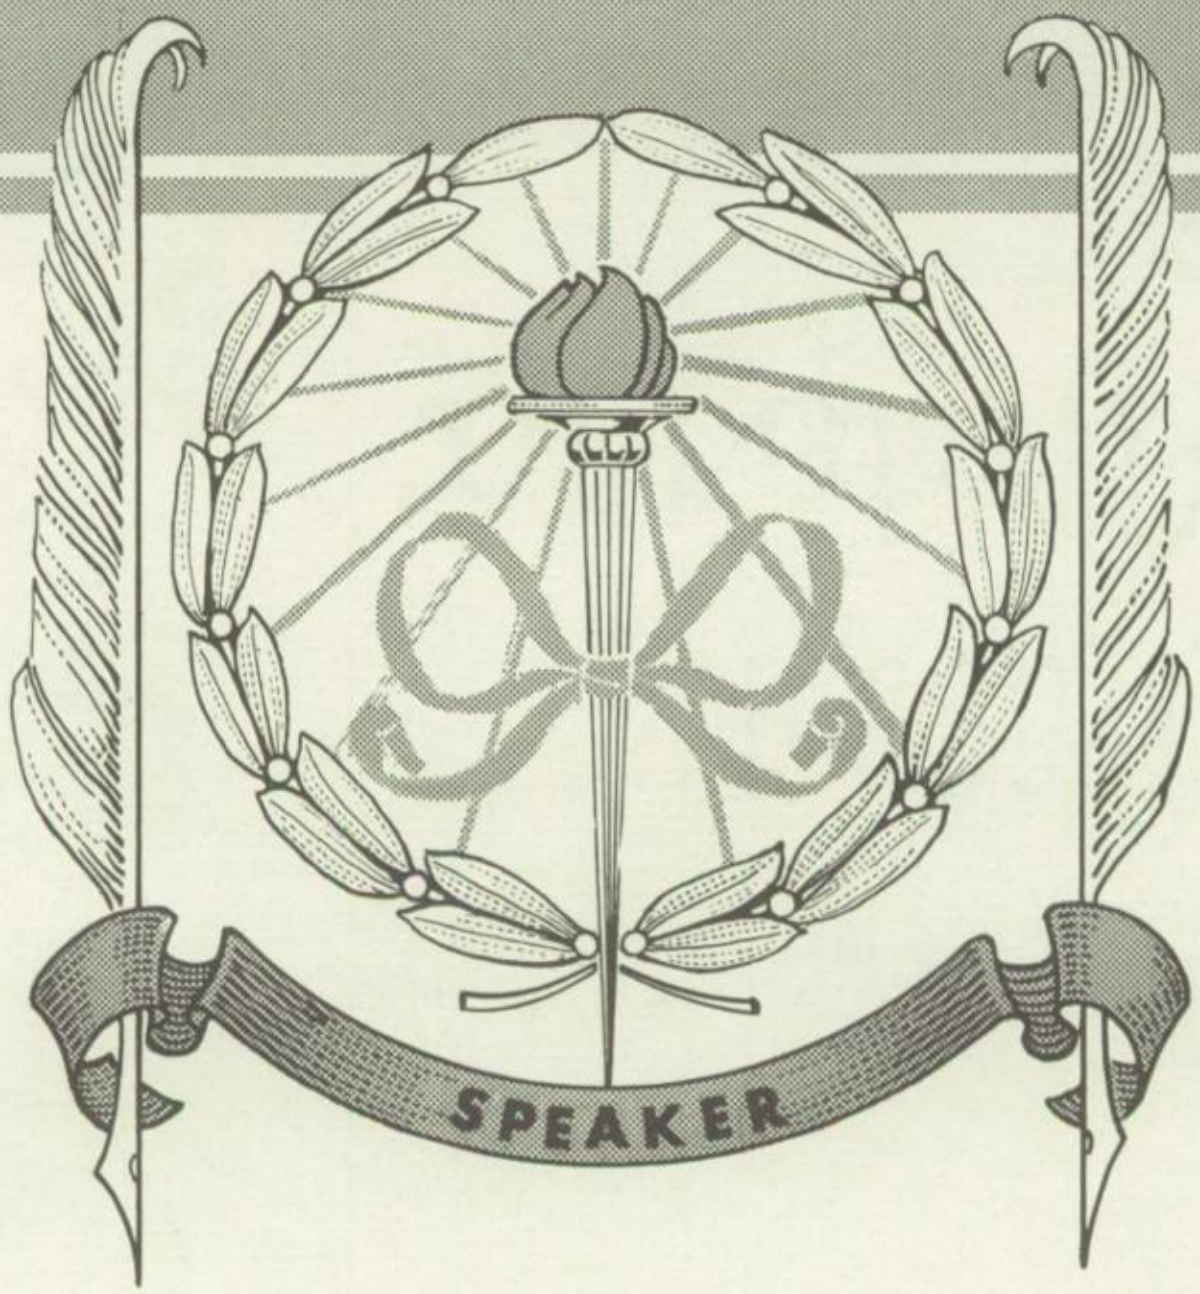
THE SPEAKER



DEDICATION

TO OUR PARENTS:

We dedicate this annual to you as an expression of our appreciation for your love and guidance through these past school years.

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

We have six different professions or occupations represented on our school board. They are charged with formulating the policies under which our schools operate. We feel this group has accepted this responsibility and thus provided us with the facilities to attend and graduate from high school.

We will always feel grateful to a group that has given their time and energy to our cause. May the cause of education be advanced even more in our community because of a board that keeps the student in mind.

Sitting: Roy Wayne Litton, Sec., Peggy Chamberlain, Pres., Billy Bob Bouyea, V.-Pres., and Patty Sisson, Treas.

Standing: Frances Elder, 8th, Marcia Clemens, 10th, Donald Sisson, 9th, Maurice Gamm, 12th, Jim Mudd, 11th, Lorraine Niemeyer, 12th, Paul Pritchard, 8th, and Betty Ann Moore, 9th Grade.

The Student Council's first project this year was the sponsoring of the Pep Parade on Nov. 22 before our Annual Invitational Tournament. We offered prizes to the three best decorated entries in the parade. We had eighteen entries with first place going to the Senior Class, the Junior and Freshman Classes tying for second and F.F.A. taking third place honors. Also during the tourney we sponsored an Information Booth for the benefit of visiting teams.

The second project was the Annual Christmas Dance held on December 15 in the Blue Room. This dance was sponsored by the P. T. A. with the Student Council assisting. The Blue Room was appropriately decorated in green and white with plenty of mistletoe and red holly berries. Soft lights and the wonderful music of Harold Baymiller's Orchestra of Quincy completed the picture for this social highlight of the year.

One of our new activities this year was the exchange of assembly programs with Louisiana High School. On March 12, we enjoyed their "Variety Show" very much. On April 2, we had the pleasure of presenting our "B.G.H.S.--T.V. Show" at Louisiana. We hope very sincerely that the good will we tried to further between the two schools will be even more encouraged in the coming years.

We have several more projects for which the dates have not been set. They are the Annual Spring Dance, The Student Council Trip, and the Rural School Friendship Day.

HISTORY

In the fall of 1949, some 57 students entered the portals of Bowling Green High for the first time as Green Freshmen. We freshmen were new and since we didn't understand the rules and regulations, the upper classmen were only too glad to give us a few pointers in the form of an initiation. After we began to see the light and had acquired some knowledge as to our standing in the school, we elected our officers. They were: President--Wiley Martin; Vice-President--Eileen Tinsley; Secretary--Mary Gentry; and Treasurer--Jean Ann McPike. Our sponsors for our Freshman year were Mr. W. E. Elmore and Miss Jeanne Dieckerman. We appreciated their help and wise suggestions. The Freshman class was well represented in the extra curriculum and were well represented on the Student Council by Doris Schmidt and Tommy Dempsey. We had for our Penny Carnival candidates: Helen Caldwell and Frank Brown. As a whole our first year was very successful and it was with proud minds that we returned the next fall as full-fledged Sophomores.

For our Sophomore year, 54 of the original 57 enrolled and we had the same old gang to share our fun, our work and our school-days. The sponsors this year were Mr. A. E. DeVilbiss and Miss Mary Beth Duncan. We chose our officers which were: Helen Caldwell as President; Shirley Moore as Vice-President; Evelyn Conrad as Treasurer and Jo Anne Fitzsimmons as Secretary. Again our class was well represented in social activities and our candidates for the Penny Carnival were Eileen Tinsley and Billy Bob Bouyea. Jean McPike and J. L. Raney were our Student Council representatives and Jean McPike received the Sophomore Pilgrimage award as the most outstanding Sophomore student. We were now wise and finished our second year at B.G.

We enrolled for our Junior year 48 strong and then faced the new and various tasks for the Junior class. We elected our officers as follows: Jean McPike as President; Shirley Moore as Vice-President; Shirley Alloway as Secretary; and Eileen Tinsley as Treasurer. We had the same sponsors. One of the greatest tasks we were faced with was a Junior-Senior Banquet and as we made plans for it, we decided to use the "Underwater" theme. Our Junior play was entitled "A Ready-Made Family." The cast included: Jean McPike, J. L. Raney, Mary Brandon, Evelyn Conrad, Betty Howdeshell, Jo Anne Fitzsimmons, Emmett Goodin, Shirley Moore, Russell Lowery and Wiley Martin. Our Penny Carnival candidates were Wilmer Wendel and Peggy Chamberlain. As we closed our books for the last time that year we realized that we would return as Seniors and the oldest class in school.

Now, for the last and most dear year, the Senior Year. We decided to have a Senior trip and started early in the year to save money for this event. We selected Chicago as our destination. We chose our officers and started to work. Our officers were Shirley Moore, President; Carolyn Turner, Vice-President; Shirley Alloway, Secretary; and Peggy Chamberlain as Treasurer. Our class was again well represented in the activities and we fared well throughout the last year. Our Student Council representatives were Lorraine Neimeyer and Maurice Gamm, and two of our classmates were elected officers in the Student Council, they were Peggy Chamberlain as President, and Billy Bob Bouyea as Vice-President. As this goes to press we have not yet graduated, but we are looking forward to it and it is with happiness and sorrow that we will march in our caps and gowns to commencement and receive our diplomas thus making us Freshmen again, Freshmen of the world.

WILL

We, the 1952 Class of Bowling Green High School, being of sound mind and of a disposing memory do hereby publish and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the faculty: We leave a new Senior class that will treat the teachers with the respect and dignity they deserve.

To the Juniors: We leave our honor and name, please respect the title and keep it honorable.

To the Sophomores: We leave our studious nature and also our laborous group of students, keep them working hard.

To the Freshmen: We leave the four best years of your life, make the most of them.

To Mr. Coverdell: We leave a new gym, a replica of the one he has been dreaming about for some (odd) years.

To Mr. Wilson: We leave an automatic absentee checker for his office and an automatic machine to send his basketball boys home at the right time before the curfew.

To Mr. Stauch: We leave a life-insurance policy (Completely Paid-Up) in case of an unfortunate accident.

To Mr. T. C. Wells: We leave a model Ag. boy with a model project and also a model progress book.

To Prof. Wells: We leave a robot that will bring all the things to practice that the band members forget, like cymbals, drumsticks and etc.

To Mr. DeVilbiss: We leave a thoroughly modern laboratory with all the modern equipment and a few specimens to examine.

To Miss Lewis: We leave an automatic paper checker and someone to quiet her 1st period bookkeeping class.

To Mrs. Slater: We leave an attendant to clean up the locker-room after a physical education period.

To Mrs. Middleton: We leave a larger and quieter Algebra class.

To Miss Childers: We leave a room in which she can teach without too many interruptions, and an English IV class that will recite orally.

To Miss Bankhead: We leave her own private car so she won't have to hire a cab.

This page sponsored by: Bennett's Jewelry and Gift Shop

To Mrs. Edwards: We leave a sewing class that will put up their patterns, thread and etc., when finished.

To Mrs. Doyle: We leave a 6th hour study hall that won't leave their seat without permission.

To Mrs. Williams: We leave an errand boy to run around the school for her.

To Mrs. Sisson: We leave someone to do her typing and keep the records straught, also a janitor to clean up the shop and office.

To Mr. Page and Mr. Fanning: We leave a student body that won't get the rooms so messy and one that will pick up all scrap paper.

PROPHECY

As I entered the Gates of Bagdad, I recalled how some ten years ago I had graduated from high school in Bowling Green, Missouri. Missouri seemed far away now. I had heard that a few of my former classmates had come to Bagdad when the tyrant queen, Mattie (who by the way was my former classmate Martha Turpin) had overtaken their homeland. Now where was I? ----Oh, Yes, entering the gates of the city. As I entered the gates, I glanced at the guards and who should I see but two old classmates, Maurice Gamm and Harry Henrichsen. I talked to them about their families and friends and then proceeded on my way. As I turned into the market place, I noticed a lovely maiden who looked familiar. I went to her market booth and as I approached it, I realized that she was Pat Quade, another of my former classmates. I bought some merchandise from her, then continued on my way. The sun was getting high in the sky so I stopped at a small cafe for a little refreshment. There I noticed the dancing girls, who were also four former classmates, Kathleen Taylor, Charlotte Pollard, Elizabeth Sprinkle, and Peggy Syrkel. They were entertaining the Prince of Bagdad and I didn't seem important enough to interrupt them at the present time. I then seated myself at the nearest table and soon a young lady I had known as Deedie Gayhart came to wait on me. As she left I remembered an article in the CURRYVILLE PRESS about Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reading going to Bagdad. As I started to partake of my meal, I felt a slight jostle and then grabbed the hands of the sly winch who was trying to relieve me of my purse. "Why, Retta Wilkins", I cried when I saw my thief. "Oh, I am sorry," she said, "I didn't recognize you." I came to find out that she had had a hard life since her brother had disinherited her in his will and she had had to steal for a living. I gave her a few pieces of silver and then started again on my way. As I tried to leave, the host of this fine establishment started my way and then I recognized him as Murray England who now was known as Ali Ben Haga, but he said for me to keep his idenity a secret because of the consequences if it was to be found out that he was an American citizen. As I journeyed down the street I noticed a fortune-teller's booth and since I am a mystice person I proceeded to have my fortune told. The lady (Madame Zena) was none other than Wanda Moore and her two lovely assistants were Norma Rutherford and Carolyn Turner. As my past is bad and my future less promising I shall not disclose my fortune, but continue on my journey. I proceeded to the show of the Emir who was known as Billy Bob Bouyea. His show was outstanding and very entertaining. His dancing girls were: Jean McPike, Peggy Chamberlain, Jo Anne Fitzsimmons, and Helen Caldwell. The next act I beheld was that of an Egyptian sword-swallower, Billy Feather, in person. I went back-stage after the show and asked Billy about his profession and he said it wasn't dangerous -----just ticklish. I tried to leave, but to my surprise I found that you were to pay 15 dunars when you entered and since I had not, I could not leave because the big man who blocked my path was the official-bouncer, Emmett Goodin. All my classmates have surely come to Bagdad. As I proceeded down the market street after paying my fee, I noticed Wilmer Wendel who was now a snake charmer. He had quite a large crowd watching him, and in it I noticed two former classmates, Jimmy Clausen and Billy Edwards who were trying to teach the people a few Hindu rope tricks. As I started for my hotel, I saw a small child sitting by the doorway of a sweet shop. I asked the boy his name and found him to be the child of my former classmate, J. L. Raney. I then proceeded on my way and when I reached my hotel room, just as I was preparing to rest I heard the loudest and longest scream I had ever heard in my life. I thought that someone was being killed and rushed to find the victim. But I discovered a hysterical, Mary Greene crying over her small child who had gotten caught in the elevator between the 3rd and 4th floors. I located the elevator boy who turned out to be Tommy Ogden, and then left him to the task of returning the boy, I packed my clothes and started out of the hotel afraid of any further interruptions. I decided then and there to get the next ship home. As I left the city gates, I noticed the graveyard by the side of the road, and there I stopped for a few minutes where I noticed a grave marked Velma Graver--Born 1933--Died 1961. As I investigated I found that five more of my classmates, Emma Bowen, Mary Gentry, Glenn Henderson, Emma Patrick, and Margie Kerr, were buried there. I paused for a moment in memory of these friends and then hurried on to the sea-port. As I neared the dock, I saw an old woman selling wares who I believed to be Dorothy Atkinson, but since I would miss my ship if I stopped, I hurried on. As I went up the gang-plank, a young man took my bags. He was none other than Frank Brown, an old classmate, and he said that the captain of the ship was another classmate, Jimmy Nolan, and that Tommy Dempsey, who was now the marajah of Melsone, was on board and with him was his harem which included Dorothy Cullop, Mary Lou Graver, Juanita Ard, Shirley Alloway, and Lorraine Neimeyer. These people were all old classmates and I was looking forward to meeting them and discuss old times. As I sat in my deck chair reading the paper from London, England, I noticed where a famous English philosopher, Evelyn Conrad, had received the Pultzier Prize for her novel. I remembered Evelyn and thought how fine it was that she was still at the head of the list of old classmates in ability and wit. As I proceeded to read my paper, a woman who was dressed in the finest of materials and who had three maids with her, came up on deck. I found from one of her maids who was also American, that she was the richest passenger on board and that before she received her title as Princess, she was known as Mary Brandon. As the ship rocked, I awoke with a start, I had fallen out of my bed instead of my chair and all this was just a silly dream instead of the real truth.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers:

President	Donna Pritchard
Vice President	Jimmy Wilhoit
Secretary	Janice Meek
Treasurer	Sue Williams
Student Council	Patty Sisson
	Jim Mudd

One of our moneymaking projects was selling candy, gum, and soda at basketball games; but our biggest and most important project was the magazine sales. Patty Sisson's total sales amounted to $153., the highest of the sales.

The Junior Float took second place in the Pep Parade which was held the day before our annual basketball tournament at Thanksgiving.

On December 12th we gave our Junior Play, "The Boarding House Reach," which was directed by Mrs. Charlotte Biggs. It was well attended, and all the cast enjoyed producing it.

Our class has participated in many of the school activities such as: Pep Squad, Spanish Club, Glee Club, Band, F. F. A., F. H. A., and the Basketball team. We are especially proud of the outstanding basketball played by members of our class.

Although the time and place have not been agreed upon as yet, we are looking forward to giving a new and different kind of Junior-Senior Banquet this year.

The Freshmen held their first class party at the City Park. We had a baseball game and a treasure hunt followed by dancing and a weiner roast. We also selected our class slogan, "Success is not a destination but a journey".

We held our second class party at the Blue Room on February 24. There was a dance and refreshments.

The Pep Squad elected Sue Mackey Williams leader and Jo Ann Fitzsimmons assistant leader. Peggy Joyce Chamberlain was elected Secretary and Treasurer.

The Pep Squad kept the same uniforms this year that they had last year. The leaders varied their uniforms, alternating in wearing black letter sweaters and red pullover sweaters every other game.

In order to finance our trips to out of town games and tournaments, we sponsored a tournament queen during our Annual Thanksgiving Tournament, and had a pep squad benefit basketball game and two food sales.

We can honestly state that our 1951-52 Pep Squad was the most cooperative group we have ever handled. In fact this year's Peppers established a new attendance record.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to T. C. Wells, our sponsor and Mrs. V. S. Williams, Mrs. H. D. Petrie, and Mrs. Glenn Elder for making it possible for us to attend all of our out of town games and tournaments.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Intramural sports are winter activities enjoyed by most of the students. Many look forward to participation in the games and the others enjoy the role of spectators. There is a great deal of enthusiasm during the tournament and feeling runs particularly high during the semi-finals and finals since only the champion teams receive awards.

Any student who wishes to play may sign up for a particular sport. Those who are to participate then nominate and vote for captains. Numbers are drawn by the captains to determine their place on the bracket and the order in which they choose their teams. The games take place at the noon hour, usually starting about 12:05, with the final game sometimes played at an assembly before the student body.

Girls' Indian Dodgeball

Eighty girls on eight teams participated in the Annual Dodgeball Tourney. The following Captains were chosen by the players: S. Alloway, Chamberlain, J. Fitzsimmons, M. L. Graver, M. L. Grote, J. McPike, L. Niemeyer, and Sisson. There were a few close games but the finals showed Graver in fourth, McPike in third, Alloway in second and Chamberlain in first. The first place team consisted of Captain Chamberlain, Howdeshell, N. Rutherford, McCoy, Clemens, Motley, M. Orf, Pritchett, W. Walker and Bybee.

Girls' Volleyball

In our Annual Girl's Volleyball Tournament there were also eight teams entered with sixty-four girls participating. H. Caldwell, Chamberlain, J. Fitzsimmons, Gamm, M. Grote, Howdeshell, L. Niemeyer, and M. Tinsley were chosen as Captains. In a closely contested game Gamm won first over Tinsley, third was taken by Howdeshell, and Chamberlain took fourth. The Champion team consisted of Captain Gamm, Bybee, R. Gillum, H. Lewis, Page, Presson, G. Thomas, Wagner, and M. Orf.

Boys' Basketball

The Annual Intramural Boys' Basketball Tournament was held with twenty-eight boys on four teams participating. The Captains selected to choose the teams were Wendel, Sachs, Bouyea, and Ebers.

The tournament featured many close games, the finals being between Ebers and Wendel. Wendel won this game by the score of 21-19. The players on the winning team were: Captain Wendel, M. Gamm, J. Wilhoit, Lovell, Elder, T. Dempsey, and W. Stone. Those on Ebers team were: Ebers, G. Henderson, H. Henrichsen, Mudd, Curry, and Clausen.

Banquet

At the Annual Basketball Banquet, Melby Elder was crowned Basketball Queen of 1951-52, having been selected by the student body. Captain Frank Brown, Jr., crowned her and presented her with a lovely orchid. Her attendants, named in order as they ran, were Sue Williams, Jo Anne Fitzsimmons, Joyce Chamberlain, and Dorothy Nell Gillum. Steve Glascock, Melvin Elzea, J. L. Raney, and Harold Black, the remaining four of the first five, presented each of the attendants with roses.

Coach Bob Moore, the "guiding light" of the outstanding 1951-52 Hannibal LaGrange Trojans, was our guest speaker. "Cotton" Fitzsimmons, a former Bob Cat and now a Trojan, was a special guest.

The theme for this banquet was "Basketball Heaven".

FHA VALENTINE TEA

On Valentine's Day, the Future Homemakers of America had an initiation tea for the new members in the home economics room. FHA mothers and friends were guests of the members. At the front of the room was a table covered with a white tablecloth on which was placed the FHA emblem and a center-piece of red roses flanked by a red candle and eight white candles, carrying out both the FHA and valentine colors.

The program began with a welcome speech by Mrs. Harold Edwards, FHA advisor and home economics teacher. The initiation ceremony followed with the president, Dorothy Cullop, taking the leading role. Other officers and members assisting in the ceremony were: Shirley Alloway, Shirley Moore, Shirley Stone, Juanita Ard, Dorothy Gillum, Lorraine Niemeyer and Patty Sisson. Each of these girls told a purpose of FHA. Following this, each new member received her FHA pin. The following girls were initiated: Wilva Alloway, Charla Bybee, Shirley Branstetter, Patsy Dunn, Ruby Gillum, Shirley Grote, Mary Graham, Janice Hoagland, Martha House, Hylah Lewis, Jo Ann Motley, Marlene Orf, Celeste Orf, Doris Peabody, Donna Pritchard, Bernadine Meyer, Georganna Myers, Sue Moore, Betty Moore, Nina Nelson, Mary Shinn, Nancy Thomas, Norma Dixon, Melby Elder, Lavena Maher, Margie Luebrecht, Naomi Palfreeman.

After the new members received their pins, Donna Pritchard sang "I Love You Truly". Then a quartette composed of Sue Williams, Donna Pritchard, Melby Elder, and Jo Anne Fitzsimmons sang "Somebody Loves Me". The guests and members then went to the living room where the president served red punch from the punch bowl containing floating frozen cherries. Heart shaped open face sandwiches, dainty cookies, and ribbon sandwiches were also served. While tea was being served, Mrs. Philip Schaper entertained with continuous music on the solovox.

F. H. A. ACTIVITIES

The Sub-District #5 of Future Homemakers of America met in Mexico, Missouri, November 3, 1951. Approximately 250 girls represented the schools in this district--Mexico, Wellsville, Louisiana, Vandalia, and Bowling Green. Bowling Green girls attending were Nancy Hollinger, Dorothy Gillum, Phyllis Tranbarger, Mary Shinn, Margie Martin, Betty Sachs, Hylah Lewis, Shirley Lewis, Lavena Maher, Mary Graham, Buelah Kuhlengel, Ruby Gillum, Nina Nelson, Jo Ann Motley, Marilyn Inlow, Emma Patrick, Shirley Stone, Martha Turpin, Peggy Syrkel, Doris Peabody, Patty Sisson, Phyllis Grover, Selma Reese, Wilva Dean Alloway, Betty Ann Moore, Helen Caldwell, Mary Jean Brandon, Charla Bybee and Velma Graver. Mrs. Harold Edwards, F. H. A. advisor, and Mrs. C. T. Gillum and Mrs. Ray Tranbarger accompanied the group.

The meeting began at nine o'clock with registration and a mixer. After the call to order, the F. H. A. Creed was repeated in unison. The superintendent gave a welcoming speech followed by a variety show with each school having three entries. Those from Bowling Green were Nancy Hollinger, who sang "I Apologize"; Betty Moore and Wilva Dean Alloway in "Dark Town Strutters Ball", a song and dance; and Dorothy Gillum with two readings. She won third place.

During the installation of officers Patty Sisson was installed as sub-district treasurer. The meeting was then adjourned for lunch.

At one o'clock the group reassembled for a style show. Those from Bowling Green modeling were Ruby Gillum, Doris Peabody, Jo Ann Motley, and Margie Martin.

After the style show Dorothy Oberlag, a former state F. H. A. officer, gave a report of the National Conference of F. H. A. held in Estes Park, Colorado, last June. Following her talk, candidates for this year's district office gave shorttalks. The candidate from Bowling Green was Shirley Stone.

Everyone enjoyed the meeting; and it was a fine beginning for National F. H. A. Week, November 3-10.

In December we contributed to the World Christmas Festival. Gisela Weber, a German girl who received the package, wrote us a letter in German acknowledging the receipt and thanking us.

In January Shirley Moore gave a report on proper clothing for the occasion.

In February Mrs. Porter Barnhill gave a talk on good grooming with special attention given to hair styles.

March 17, the faculty-school board banquet was served in the Home Economics department with the F. H. A. girls helping prepare and serve the food.

March 25, we voted on officers for the state F. H. A.

At the April meeting Martha Lou Grote was elected as the chapter's delegate to the state F. H. A. meeting in Jefferson City April 19. She was accompanied by Mrs. Harold Edwards, advisor and Mrs. Marlin Orf, a chapter mother.

In April we plan to have a person from a foreign country talk to the girls on customs of his country. Officers for next year will be elected before the school term ends.

Faculty School Board Banquet

The home economics girls, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Edwards, home economic instructor in Bowling Green High School, served the annual faculty-school banquet Monday. There were 53 present.

Since it was St. Patrick's Day, colors of green and white predominated the decorations and dinner. Ruffled green crepe paper decorated the tables with green ivy potted plants and candles dispersed intermittantly. To one side of the room was an attractive center of interest, a white harp, intermingled with green carnations.

The menu consisted of tomato juice with ritz crackers, baked ham, buttered peas, candied yams, butterfly salad, assorted relishes, hot rolls, coffee, white and chocolate cakes with lime sherbet.

Mac Coverdell, Superintendent of schools, introduced the new faculty members and their husbands. A short social hour followed the dinner that was enjoyed by all.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club was reorganized this year under the supervision of Miss Bankhead. The sixteen members elected the following people as officers:

President:	Evelyn Conrad
Vice-President	J. L. Raney
Secretary	Janice Meek
Treasurer	Mary Gentry
Reporters	Phyllis Tranbarger
	Dorothy Nell Gillum

The meetings have been held in the homes of the members. Our outstanding accomplishment of the year is the prospect of finishing our second year Latin Book. The other activity was the purchase of Latin Pins by a majority of the members.

We all have enjoyed a very successful and educational term with Miss Bankhead and some of us regret to see it end. We also encourage the students who will be Sophomores and Juniors to take this course. We think they will find it very interesting.

The club name, Tres y Cinco, may be translated as three and five, representing the three boys and five girls.

Our activities included a Spanish dinner consisting of tortillas, enchalades, frijoles, ensalada de pina y queso, maiz, and ensalada de legumbres. Senora Blanco Green, native of Guatemala, was our guest and brought handmade articles from her homeland. Joy Ann Gentry was our hostess.

At Christmas we had a dinner at Carol Petrie's home. The evening was completed with charades, spin the bottle, and snowball fights. Both Gentry's and Petrie's record players suffered from the convulsions of the record riots.

Other programs have featured tourists, who have been to Mexico and Spain, games played in Spanish, and refreshments furnished by the club members.

The school provided us with an album of Spanish records consisting of Spanish conversation and songs.

Our senior member of the club, Miss Childers, refereed our classes and club meetings. Being our teacher it was her duty to attend our activities, so we found it necessary to invite her.

We hope we will have just as much fun next year and win a prize in the homecoming parade.

For a long time our annual has followed previous examples in size, style, and copy arrangement. The 1952 "Speaker" is different. A new type of cover has been selected and inside it you find a bigger and better yearbook than ever before. There is a very large selection of snapshots, always a favorite feature, and all material has been arranged to make it as interesting as possible.

There are pictures of all our extra-curricular activities: Sports, band, the basketball banquet, the Christmas dance, the Jr. and Sr. plays, freshman initiation, etc., and our various clubs: Home Ec, Vocational Agriculture, Pep Squad, Latin Club, and Spanish Club.

Hope you enjoy your "Speaker"!

The Bobcat Tales is the bi-weekly publication of Bowling Green High School. The paper is published and sponsored by the Senior Class.

The paper contains news of school sports, contests, current happenings, a little good natured chatter, and lately has featured some particular department of our school. We have also printed some of the writings of our own students, particularly from the Junior English class during their newspaper study.

I think as a whole the active staff members have enjoyed working on the paper and we hope the student body has enjoyed it as much as we have.

These five men transport a big percentage of our students and can be depended upon to get them to school and back home safely and on time in the majority of cases. Due to icy or snowy weather, there were a few days they didn't attempt to go on their regular routes. Some of the buses transport students who live as much as 30 miles from school. Walter Hiles is employed full-time and maintains and repairs the buses.
